Thoughts from Leonard

Christian One Liners

- Don't let your worries get the best of you; remember, Moses started out as a basket case.
- Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited until you try to sit in their pews.
- Many folks want to serve God, but only as advisors.
- It is easier to preach ten sermons than it is to live one.
- The good Lord didn't create anything without a purpose, but mosquitoes come close.
- When you get to your wit's end, you'll find God lives there.
- People are funny; they want the front of the bus, the middle of the road, and the back of the church.
- Opportunity may knock once, but temptation bangs on your front door forever.
- Quit griping about your church; if it was perfect, you couldn't belong.
- If the church wants a better pastor, it only needs to pray for the one it has.
- God Himself does not propose to judge a man until he is dead. So why should you?
- Some minds are like concrete thoroughly mixed up and permanently set.
- Peace starts with a smile.
- A lot of church members who are singing "Standing on the Promises" are just ! sitting on the premises.
- Be ye fishers of men. You catch them-He'll clean them.
- Coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous.
- Forbidden fruits create many jams.
- God grades on the cross, not the curve.
- God loves everyone, but probably prefers "fruits of the spirit" over "religious nuts!"
- God promises a safe landing, not a calm passage.
- He who angers you, controls you.

Announcements

- We are so appreciative of the welcome and support you all have shown to our family as we adjust to our new home and environment here in Amarillo. From the kind words of encouragement, play dates for Aubrey, invitations for dining out, and offers of help, we feel confident that our lives here will be filled with rewarding relationships with our new church family. Sunday's pounding was a generous expression of your support and was like a feather in the cap, adding to our sense of belonging. We look forward to our work within the community and ask for your prayers as we strive to serve God to His glory.

In Him,
