Thoughts from Leonard

Serve One Another In Love Galatians 5:13-26

Introduction:

Romans 1:12
Galatians 5:13

What do we mean when we say freedom:

What freedom is not.

Two extremes:

- A. Binds us so tight that we are not able to express our love to each other.
- B. Us our freedom as a license or opportunity to sin

It is not a freedom from our sinful nature:

Galatians 5:16-17

We are free that we might serve. Gal. 5:19, 13

He follows with negative statements. Gal 5:15, 26

Two statements that will help us to know how to serve.

1. Vs. 16 - “Walk by the Spirit...”
2. Vs.18 - “Led by the Spirit...”

Remember that vs. 19-21 are in the context of human relationships.

Conclusion:

How do I know I am serving you in love? VS. 22-23

Questions for you that we could discuss:

1. Is there Christian love being expressed among one another in this church family?
2. Is there evidence of joint happiness - are we full of peace, oneness, purity.
3. Are we showing patience with one another, being kind to one another in our actions and attitudes?
4. Are we demonstrating goodness in concrete deed and actions?
5. Are we faithful to each other?

A place for His birth...a house to sleep in...a boat to preach from...an animal to ride on...a room to meet privately with His friends...and a tomb to be buried in.
