

The Family

PRAYER LIST:

Many of our members have been sick with various flu, coughs and bad colds. Please remember those at home who are recovering from illness.

Pat Henson had some tests run and the results were good.

Continue to pray for our elders, deacons, Leonard and Cheryl and for the San Jacinto church family. Please pray for the growth and the success of this church family.

“I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy”. (Philippians 1:3-4)

What I Owe My Home Congregation!

Unto the church of my Lord in every locality, I am under solemn obligation to the extent of my ability; but unto my home congregation I am under special obligation.

1. I want my home congregation to radiate a wholesome influence in the community. Therefore, I owe it the example of a good life. For it I must live “soberly, righteously and godly.” (Matt. 5: 13-16).
2. I want the strangers who enter the door of the meeting house to feel at home, to learn to love us, to return from time to time. They are guests; I must not stand back and wait for others to greet them; this I must do. (Heb. 13:2).
3. No congregation can make progress without faithful and efficient leaders. To a certain extent, the members of the church make or break their leaders. To an end that our leaders may be stronger and more efficient, I must give them my support. As long as they are true men, I must not embarrass them in their work. (1 Timothy 5:19).
4. My home congregation has financial obligations which are due at the regular intervals. Whether I give or do not give, these obligations must be paid. If it is right for my congregation to pay its obligations each week, it is right for me to give each week. Though circumstances may force me to be absent at times, my contributions must find their way to the treasury of the church. (1 Cor. 16:1-2).
5. I know that the very existence of any congregation depends upon the attendance of its members. In fact, the attendance is the life of the church. For this reason I must attend the service—all the services I can. I would not have it said that my home congregation perished because I would not attend services (Hebrews 10:25).
6. I want my home congregation to grow, to multiply in members. Therefore, I must set myself to the noble work of winning souls for Christ. Wishing to be honest, I must meet my obligations to the best of my ability. I must, with the help that God gives, play my part in the incomparable work of building the body of Christ which He purchased with His own precious blood.

Dear, Church Family,

You mean so much to us. We want to thank everyone for the cards, letters, calls, and visits during my long illness and surgery. We ask for your continued prayers for a complete recovery. I am home now and will continue my recovery process with visits to the Physical Therapist at my doctor’s office.

Love,
Doyle & Charlotte Miller

Wedding Daze: A grandmother overheard 5 year old Christy “playing wedding.” The wedding vows went like this: “You have the right to remain silent, anything you say may be held against you, you have the right to an attorney present. You may kiss the bride.”

James (4) was listening to a Bible story. After his dad read, “Lot was warned to take his wife and flee out of the city, but his wife looked back and was turned to salt,” James asked, “What happened to the flea?”

How Adam had it Easy

1. He is the only man who has never been compared to the man she could have married.
2. He had no in-laws to drop in.
3. There were no Jones for him to keep up with.
4. There were no credit cards or shopping centers.
5. He never had his dinner interrupted by window salesmen.
6. He got away with wearing a simple wardrobe.
7. He never had to shovel snow!
8. If he had gone bald, who would have known that wasn't normal.
9. There was no “standard weight and height” tables—and the word fat meant good.
