Born in the House of Bread

Christ was born in Bethlehem. The literal meaning for the name Bethlehem is "The House of Bread." Jesus was not born in the house of royalty, or the house of riches, or the house of celebrity. Jesus was not born in Jerusalem, or in Rome, or in Athens or Alexandria. Jesus was not born in any political, commercial, cultural, educational, or socially significant city of the day. When Micah, the Old Testament prophet, foretold the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem, he emphasized its lack of significance to the world.

"But thou, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel: whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting" (Micah 5:2).

Bread is one of life's most common things, and without it man would not survive. God wanted his Son to be "common" in the sense that He is available to all. Without Him, there is no life.
—Brian Atwood

"And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst." John 6:35

The Infinite came down to earth in the form of an infant; He who spans the heavens and holds the ocean in the hollow of his hand, condescended to hang upon a woman's breast; the King eternal became a little child. Let Bethlehem tell that He had compassion. There was no way of saving us but by stooping to us. To bring earth up to heaven, He must bring heaven down to earth. Therefore, in the incarnation, He had compassion, bringing heaven down to earth, for He took upon himself our infirmities, and was made like unto ourselves.

"The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." —John 1:14

DID YOU REALIZE?

- That the Bible nowhere says "Accept Jesus as your personal Savior"?
- That not one denomination is to be found in the New Testament?
- That "The Rapture" is not once mentioned in all of the Bible?
- That no one was ever told to "Ask Jesus into your heart" in answer to the question "What must I do to be saved?"
- That every verse in the New Testament where baptism and salvation appear together always lists baptism before salvation? ( Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; Acts 22:16; Romans 6:4; 1 Peter 3:21)
- That even a child of God can sin and be eternally lost? (Luke 15:11-24; Acts 8:13-23; Gal. 5:4; Peter 2:20-22; Rev. 3:16)
- That instrumental music cannot be found in New testament worship and was not introduced into the worship of the church until centuries later? That vocal music is requested? (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16)
- That the term "faith only" is mentioned just once in Scripture and that in a condemnatory fashion? ( James 2:24)
- That salvation is a free gift of God but must be received on His terms? ( Eph. 2:8,9; Heb. 5:8,9; Rom. 6:16-18)

Thank you to the San Jacinto church family for all the cards, calls, visits and prayers during my recent shoulder surgery and recovery. It is a blessing to have so many concerned friends in this church.

God bless all of you,
Barbara Polk

Tammy (4) was with her mother when they met any elderly, rather wrinkled woman her mom knew. Tammy looked at her for a while and then asked, "Why doesn't your skin fit your face?"
