THAT LITTLE EXTRA EFFORT

The difference between success and failure is often determined by the willingness put forth that "little extra effort." In many areas putting forth that "little extra effort" makes the difference between a good church and a really great church.

That "little extra effort" gets us to Bible class as well as worship on the morning of the Lord's day.

- That "little extra effort" causes us to spend more time in private study of God's Word.
- That "little extra effort" reminds us to frequently claim the privilege of prayer.
- That "little extra effort" helps us to be more sacrificial in our giving as measured by our prosperity instead of the attitude that says give as little as possible.
- That "little extra effort" keeps us at our home congregation except in cases of necessity.
- That "little extra effort" leads us into a compassionate concern for the lost and wayward, and reminds us to speak to them about their spiritual condition.
- That "little extra effort" helps us engage wholeheartedly and attentively in all phases of worship.
- That "little extra effort" involves us in every activity of the work of the local church.

- Copied -

Low in the grave He lay Jesus my Savior! Waiting the coming day Jesus my Lord. Vainly they watch His bed Jesus, my Savior! Vainly they seal the dead Jesus, my Lord! Death cannot keep His prey Jesus, my savior! He tore the bars away Jesus, my Lord! Up from the grave he arose with a mighty triumph o'er His foes; He arose a Victor from the dark domain, And He lives forever with His saints to reign: He arose! He arose! Hallelujah! Christ arose!

EARLY IN THE MORNING

Early in the morning
I rise to meet the Lord,
He makes His presence known to me
Through the pages of His Word.

For when I meet Him early
At the dawning of the day,
The hours go more smoothly
Whatever comes my way.

But if I fail to meet Him
And rush to other things,
I face the kind of failures
That a day without Him brings.

So here's a little secret
To make your day go right,
Meet God early in the morning
And praise Him every night.

Just Take It Straight

Do not read anything into the Good Book, if you wish to get anything out of it—just take it straight. Instead of trying to alter your Bible to fit you, change yourself to fit it; otherwise you will have religion's conformity in reverse. What you think of the Bible does not affect it—just you. If it appears too deep, you surely need the exercise it affords to think deeper. If it looks too exacting, you definitely require its influence to keep from straying. And if it seems dry, it might be that you have allowed too much dust to accumulate on it.

"Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you." (Deuteronomy 4:2)
