SURE FOUNDATIONS

In an age of skepticism, we long for that about which we can be positive. There are many ways that “seem right, but the end thereof are the ways of death” (Proverbs 14:12). We have in our generation passed through a sexual revolution, a feminist movement, and laws made by governing bodies that legalize abortion. The church is affected by these aberrations in our society.

There is a way to be sure and certain. “Behold, I lay in Zion...a sure foundation” (Isaiah 28:16). This foundation of which Isaiah spoke was fulfilled in Christ and the church, and the principles governing it in the everlasting Gospel of Christ. “Heaven and earth shall pass away but my words shall not pass away” (Matthew 24:35). “And the scripture cannot be broken” (John 10:35). “Other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid; which is Jesus Christ” (Corinthians 3:11). “Upon this rock, I will build my church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it” (Matthew 16:18).

By the law God gave man regarding marriage, we can be positive that God allows man only one wife (1 Corinthians 7:2), and woman only one husband. We can be positive that when this bond is broken by fornication, only the innocent party had the right to remarry (Matthew 19:9). Otherwise, “except” has no meaning at all. We can be positive that homosexuality and lesbianism are perversions of God’s natural heterosexual plan (Genesis 2:24; Romans 1:24-28). I am not being arrogant, but am humbly pleading for a return to God’s way. I am for God’s plan in marriage and am positive it is right; therefore I must stand opposed (at the risk of being termed “negative”) to any deviation from the right way.

By God’s law forbidding murder, we can be positive that abortion is sinful, because it is killing a human baby (Exodus 20:13; Romans 13:9). Whether we consider the Old Testament or the New, we are sure that it is forbidden in both. Whether it is a babe in the womb (Luke 1:41), or one born from the womb (Luke 2:12), or an elderly person in a nursing home, it is still wrong to take a human life.

In like manner, we can be sure that God’s will is for men to pray publicly and teach publicly, and for women to teach only the other women and children (1 Timothy 2:12; Titus 2:3-

There are some things we can not know for sure, such as the age of the earth (though we believe it is recent, in contrast to the billions of years assigned by evolutionists), nor do we have scriptural assurance that God will sanction instrumental music in worship. The reason is simple. There is no evidence in the New Testament for its use in worship. There are no commands, examples, or inferences for its use, but rather, the New Testament records that Christians sang in worship to God. We can be positive that the Lord has given us a pattern for the one body to follow in all things (II Timothy 1:13), and that one body is the church which Jesus purchased with His own blood (Colossians 1:18:24; Acts 20:28).

There are many who today are turning from the old paths to follow ways about which we cannot be positive. Let us “prove all things and hold fast that which is good” (I Thessalonians 5:21). In a world bent on apostasy from the truth, let us continue in His Word, for only then are we “disciples indeed” (John 8:31). As David of old said, “If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?” (Psalm 11:3).

Why is it that our children can’t read a Bible in school, but they can in prison?

How we live is much more important than how long we live. How are you living?

“But exhort one another daily, while it is called today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.” Hebrews 3:1.

Our eyes are always the same size from birth, but our nose and ears never stop growing.

If you are an average American, in your whole life, you will spend an average of 6 months waiting at red lights.

Everyone has a photographic memory. Some just don’t have film.
