GOD'S TATTOO

There are some cultures that encourage tattoos. These tattoos may have tribal significance. Other cultures may accept tattoos as simply pretty. And some cultures frown upon tattoos that are openly visible for all to see.

What is interesting is that God says He had a "tattoo." In Isaiah 49:14, the people of Israel say that God has forgotten them. But God says He has not forgotten them. In verse 16 we read, "Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me." God does not have physical hands. He uses this symbolism to make the point that He does not forget His people.

God has his people's names written on His palms. Most tattoos are on the side of a person's arms, on the back, or on the legs. If a tattoo is in these places, clothing will usually cover it up. But clothing rarely covers the hands. One's palms are constantly visible. Whatever is on the palms is a constant reminder.

Is your name written on God's palms? Do you study your Bible? Do you obey the Bible? If you do not, your name is not written on God's palms. Make sure God writes your name on His palms. —Mark McWhorter, Wisdom's Corner

"Rejoice, because your names are written in heaven."
Luke 10:20

Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers and grandmothers! I thought that you would enjoy this:

Did you hear about the time when a young girl was sitting on her grandmother's lap carefully listening to the Bible story of Noah's Ark? She asked, "Were you on the ark, grandma?" The grandmother chuckled and replied, "Why, no, I wasn't on the ark."

There was a brief pause, and the grandchild looked up and asked, "Then why weren't you drowned?!"

THAT LITTLE EXTRA EFFORT

The difference between success and failure is often determined by the willingness put forth—that "little extra effort." In many areas putting forth that "little extra effort" makes the difference between a good church and a really great church.

That "little extra effort" gets us to Bible class as well as worship on the morning Lord's day.

That "little extra effort" brings us back to the evening worship on the Lord's Day.

- That "little extra effort" causes us to spend more time in private study of God's Word.
- That "little extra effort" reminds us to frequently claim the privilege of prayer.
- That "little extra effort" helps us to be more sacrificial in our giving as measured by our prosperity instead of the attitude that says give as little as possible.
- That "little extra effort" keeps us at our home congregation except in cases of necessity.
- That "little extra effort" leads us into a compassionate concern for the lost and wayward, and reminds us to speak to them about their spiritual condition.
- That "little extra effort" helps us engage wholeheartedly and attentively in all phases of worship.
- That "little extra effort" involves us in every activity of the work of the local church. —Copied

Mother is Still Watching

She always leaned to watch for us, anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window, in summer by the gate.
And though we mocked her tenderly, who had such foolish care,
The long way home was always safe because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us, she never could forget!
And so I think that where she is, she must be waiting yet.
Waiting until we come home to her, anxious if we are late.
Watching from Heaven's window, leaning on Heaven's gate.
—Margaret Widdomer

Announcements

There will be a Pizza supper and movie on Friday, May 18th, at 6:00 in the Family Center. Please let Kay Chism know by Wednesday night whether you plan to attend so that she will be able to purchase enough pizza. There will be a $2.00 charge per person.

San Jacinto is giving a $1000.00 to the Mullinville church of Christ in Kansas to help the tornado victims. This is the closest congregation to Greensburg, where 95% of the town was destroyed. Eleven of the members of this 80 to 100 people congregation had their homes destroyed. If anyone wishes to contribute, give your check to one of the Elders.

All the ladies are invited to a salad luncheon at the home of Lawanda Moore at 11:00 on May 23rd.
