FREEDOM

“Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage” Galatians 5:1.

Our country was founded upon the dream of freedom. However, some would interpret this to mean that one can do what he wants to do when he wants to do it regardless of the wishes of others.

This cry for liberty without limits is heard too often in our country and sometimes in the church. But when we live with others, we must learn to restrict our desires when they conflict with the good of others. As someone put it, “A man’s right to throw his fist around ends where the other fellow’s nose begins.”

When you think about it, there is no absolute freedom. No one is free from the law of gravity on earth. No one is free from the harmful effects of poison. It kills the innocent baby as well as the hardened criminal. The astronauts who went to the moon were not and could not be free from physical needs. That is why they carried food, water and oxygen.

Even God has voluntarily restricted Himself. He cannot be tempted with evil, nor does He tempt man to do wrong (James 1:13). It is impossible for God to lie (Hebrews 6:18).

Therefore, it should not surprise us to realize that we serve someone. “Don’t you know that when you offer yourselves to someone to obey him as slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you obey - whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness?” (Romans 6:16).

When we make the choice, the blessings or the consequences are included in the choice. But we are free to choose.

Are you using your freedom wisely?

IF A MAN HUNGERS AND THIRSTS AFTER RIGHTEOUSNESS, HE WILL NOT COME DRAGGING IN LATE AT MEAL TIME.

IN ONE WORD

Dr. S. D. Gordon tells of an old Christian woman whose age began to tell on her memory. She had once known much of the Bible by heart. Eventually only one precious bit stayed with her. “I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day.” By and by part of that slipped its hold, and she would quietly repeat, “That which I have committed unto Him.”

At last as she hovered on the borderland between this and the spirit world, her loved ones noticed her lips moving. They bent down to see if she needed anything. She was repeating over and over again to herself the one word of the text, “Him - Him - Him.” She had lost the whole Bible but one word. But she had the whole Bible in that one word.” —from Leaves of Gold.

Dear San Jacinto Church Family,
I sincerely thank all who prayed for my recovery from my recent surgery, visited me in person or by phone, sent cards or brought me food. It made my recovery go by faster.
With Christian Love,

It Might be Funny if it Wasn’t so Painful

Two men were arguing about which of them knew most of the Bible. Finally one bet the other that he couldn’t quote the Lord’s prayer. The bet was called and the fellow recited:
“Now I lay me down to sleep.

I pray the Lord my soul to keep.

If I should die before I wake,

I pray the Lord my soul to take.”

When he finished the other fellow said, “Well, here’s your money. I didn’t think you could do it.” —Bulletin Digest

Remember, idle hands are the devil’s workshop. We need to keep busy in the work of the Lord!!

VBS was a great success!! We want to thank all of the people who participated in any way. The teachers, assistant teachers, the workers, cooks, helpers and those who attended the adult classes or the children’s classes made this a memorable VBS. We trusted in the Lord and He provided!

Remember, due to this being summer and people being away for vacations and other activities, we are not going to have an organized visitation program. Look around and see who may not be in attendance and give them a call. We can all help by calling the shut - ins, the ones in nursing homes, rehab hospitals or the ones at home recovering from illness or surgeries. Let us all do our part this summer.

Please put Joyce Kriling’s sister, Gayle Gustafson, on your prayer list. She is in the hospital in Tulsa.
