THE SINNER'S PRAYER

Recently my wife and I went into a sandwich shop to eat lunch. On the counter was a stack of booklets titled, "God's Simple Plan of Salvation." Later as I read the material, I came across two statements which caught my attention.

On salvation the booklet had,

Just pray: Oh God, I know I am a sinner. I believe Jesus was my substitute when he died on the cross. I believe His shed blood, death, burial and resurrection were for me. I now receive Him as my Savior. Thank you for the forgiveness of my sins and the gift of salvation and everlasting life, because of your merciful grace. Amen.

It is interesting to note that in the Bible conversions, not one single person was commanded to pray "the sinner's prayer." Simon the sorcerer was commanded to repent and pray for forgiveness (Acts 8:22), but he had already believed and had been baptized (Acts 8:13). Simon was a believer (Christian) who had sinned and was instructed on how he could obtain forgiveness.

The answer to the question of the alien sinner, "What must I do to be saved?" is clearly set forth in Acts 2:22-47:

- Peter preached Jesus Christ
- The people were convicted
- Convinced of sin, they asked for instructions
- Peter answered their question
- They obeyed Peter's instructions
- God added them to the church

On baptism the booklet mentioned above had:

You should be baptized in obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ as a public testimony of your salvation, and then unite with a Bible believing church without delay.

Nowhere in the Bible do you read that people were baptized or told to be baptized "as a public testimony of one's salvation." You do read in the Bible that baptism was,

- For remission of sins (Acts 2:38).
- To wash away sins (Acts 22:16).
- To put one into Christ (Galatians 3:27).
- To unite the sinner with the death of Jesus Christ (Romans 6:3-4).

- For salvation (1 Peter 3:21; Mark 16:16).

Insight From Student Test Papers...

- Socrates died from an overdose of wedlock.
- Magna Carta provided that no free man should be hanged twice for the same offense.
- Martin Luther was nailed to the church door at Wittenberg.
- Lincoln's mother died in infancy, and he was born in a log cabin which he built with his own hands.
- Question: What is one horsepower? Answer: one horsepower is the amount of energy it takes to drag a horse 500 feet in one second.
- We say the cause of perfume disappearing is evaporation. Evaporation gets blamed for a lot of things people forget to put the top on.
- To most people solutions mean finding the answers. But to chemists, solutions are things that are still all mixed up.
- You can listen to thunder after lightning and tell how close you came to getting hit. If you don't hear it, you got hit, so never mind.
- Some people can tell what time it is by looking at the sun. But I have never been able to make out the numbers.

We Need More Grandpas

Junior bit the meter man, Junior hit the cook;
Junior's anti-social now (according to the book);
Junior smashed the clock and lamp, Junior hacked the tree;
(Destructive trends are treated in chapters two and three).
Junior tossed his shoes and socks out into the rain;
(Negation, that is normal—disregard the strain).
Junior set Dad's shirt on fire, Whittled Grandpa's pine;
(That's to gain attention, see page eighty-nine).
Grandpa seized a slipper, and yanked Junior across his knee;
He's read nothing but the Bible since 1933!
