SHOULD THE GOSPEL BE CHANGED?

We live in a day and age in which everything seems to be changing constantly. Because of this, some claim that the gospel must change to keep in step with the times. They say, "Time does not wait for anybody. It leaves behind those who do not keep step." Is this true? Should the gospel be changed; can it be changed and still be the gospel?

All will admit that we live in a society in which things change constantly. But I will hasten to add that everything does not change with time. Man's need for food, clothing and shelter are the same, in that he still needs such to survive. Also, sin has not changed. Eve sinned when she transgressed the law of God (Genesis 3:1-6). Today, men sin when they transgress God's law (1John 3:4).

Now if sin is still the same, why should the remedy (the gospel) be changed? The fact of the matter is that the gospel should not be changed. Paul said, "But though we, or an angel from heaven preach any other gospel unto to you than that which we have preached unto you let him be accursed" (Galatians 1:8). Paul makes it clear to the Galatians that the gospel could not be changed and still be the gospel. Paul spoke of the preaching of "another gospel which is not another" (Galatians 1:6-7). Jude, writing concerning the common salvation that came by the way of the gospel, exhorted the brethren to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 3). Jude speaks of the faith which comes from the preaching of the gospel (Romans 10:17) and says that it was once delivered. The gospel is complete and needs no changes. It gives all things that pertain unto life and godliness (2 Peter 1:3). It furnishes man completely with the spiritual diet unto every good work (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

The gospel is the "power of God unto salvation" (Romans 1:16). It is the word of God that we will be judged by (John 12:48). Since the gospel will save and it is that by which we will be judged, then why would we want to change it? All we must do is recognize the gospel for what it is - The Truth (Colossians 1:5); Obey it or be lost ( 1 Thessalonians 1:8; Romans 1:16).

These statements were seen on church signs:

- The best vitamin for a Christian is B1.
- Under same management for over 2000 years.
- Soul food served here.
- Don't wait for the hearse to take you to church.
- Don't give up. Moses was once a basket case.
- Life has many choices. Eternity has two. What's yours?
- Worry is interest paid on trouble before it is due.
- Preach the Gospel at all times. Use words if necessary.
- Prevent truth decay. Brush up on your Bible.
- It's hard to stumble when you're down on your knees.
- What part of 'Thou Shalt Not' don't you understand?
- A clear conscience makes a soft pillow.
- The wages of sin is death. Repent before payday.
- Never give the devil a ride. He will always want to drive.
- Can't sleep? Try counting your blessings.
- Forbidden fruit creates many jams.
- Christians, keep the faith—but not from others!
- Satan subtracts and divides. God adds and multiplies.
- If you don't want to reap the fruits of sin, stay out of the devil's orchard.
- To belittle is to be little.

"For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul." Proverbs 2:10

Visitation Team Three need to see Doyle Miller for your assignments after evening services.

=====

During an attack of laryngitis, I lost my voice completely for two days. To help me communicate with him, my husband devised a system of taps. One tap meant, "Give me a kiss," two taps meant "No," three taps meant "Yes" and 95 meant "Take out the garbage."

After putting her grandchildren to bed, a grandmother changed into old slacks and a droopy blouse and proceeded to wash her hair. As she heard the children getting more and more rambunctious, her patience grew thin. At last she threw a towel around her head and stormed into their room, putting them back to bed with stern warnings. As she left the room, she heard the three-year-old say with a trembling voice, "Who was THAT?"
