REASONS TO ATTEND

Some members of the church willfully absent themselves from the assembly of the local church. Many reason within their own minds, the Sunday evening or midweek services are simply not important. Furthermore, they excuse themselves from Bible class because they feel it too is simply not important. However, church attendance is a good indication of one's spiritual health. Forsaking the assembly is a sign of "heart trouble."

A weak love of the Lord allows other things to come before worship (John 14:23-24). What many are looking for is "Brylcream" religion: "A little dab'll do you."

While some fail to attend because of ignorance, because they are not well taught of the necessity of assembling, others simply make it a willful habit that is surely sinful. Failure to attend the services has become almost acceptable, common and respectable. While there are valid excuses for not attending such as health, work and natural disasters, the reasons to attend are great and should be considered.

The Lord expects us to assemble (Heb. 10:24-25). It was the general practice of Christians in the first century to assemble together (Acts 2:42). They came together for various reasons including partaking of the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7), giving (1Cor. 16:1-2) and hearing the word taught (Acts 20:7) The purpose of assembling is summed up in Hebrews 10:24, "And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works." There are several areas that assembling helps to "stir us up."

An elderly woman had just returned to her home from an evening church service when she was startled by an intruder. She caught a man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables and yelled, "Stop! Acts 2:38!"

The burglar stopped in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she done. As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, "Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you." "Scripture?" replied the burglar. "She said she had an ax and two 38s!"

"Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Acts 2:38

Jesus, the academic marvel...

In chemistry, He turned water to wine (John 2:1-10).

In biology, He was born without the normal conception. (Matthew 1:18-25).

In physics, He overcame the law of gravity by walking on water and ascending into heaven (Matthew 14:25; Acts 1:9-11).

In economics, He disproved the law of diminishing returns by feeding 5000 with two fish and five loaves (John 6: 1-11).

In medicine, He cured the sick and the blind without administering a single dose of drugs (Matthew 8:1-34; 15:30).

In history, He is the beginning and the end (Revelation 1:8).

In government, He is King of kings (1 Timothy 6:15).

In religion, no one comes to the Father except through Him (John 14:6).

A Bible class teacher urged her young class to come back for the night-time service. One of the children replied, "My mommy and daddy just won't go to night church." Many times children "tell all," and I'm sure this was one of those times. The child was probably expressing, word for word, what the parent had verbalized on various occasions. Unfortunately, this is a problem that is entirely too prevalent in the church today.

But...what about those who "won't go" to the night services? Well, first of all, they ignore great Bible examples of night-time learning. Nicodemus went to Jesus at night for the great lesson on new birth (John 3:3-5). The Philippian jailer was converted at night (Acts 16). Peter was delivered from prison at night (Acts 12:6-10). The "day service only" brethren would have missed all these blessings!

Second, the "day only" brethren miss two-thirds of all regular services of the church when they miss Sunday and Wednesday nights! Could a student pass in school by attending only one-third of the time? Is the success of the church less important than these?

Third, the "day only" brethren show that they do not believe such services are necessary, that they are not interested in the lost at those services, and that they will work harder for material things than for spiritual things.

Do you attend the night-time services? If not - why not?

Announcements

Visitation Team One need to see James Estes for your assignments after evening services.

To the brothers and sisters here at San Jacinto, Your thoughtfulness meant so very much to us during the death of our niece.

Much love in Him,
H. D. & Joyce Dyson

We extend our sympathy to Lisa Wagner on the death of her mother, Ima Wagner. Ima died on Monday and her services were in Panhandle.

Start planning to attend the pot-luck luncheon after services on February 17th.
