READ THE INSTRUCTIONS

I can vividly remember my first two-wheeler bicycle that my dad bought me when I was a boy. It was a red Huffy "Cheater Slick" with a banana seat. Now, when he bought the bike, he had a choice of buying a display model that was already assembled, or he could buy the "bike in a box" that he would have to assemble himself. We bought the bike in a box because it was five dollars cheaper.

So we took the bike home and spread all the parts out on the living room floor. To a little boy, it all looked so confusing. But one thing I knew...I knew where the hand grips went, so I popped them on the handlebar without reading the instructions. To my dismay, I later learned that I shouldn't have been so hasty and should have read the instructions, for the handlebar had to be threaded through a joint prior to putting on the hand grips. Uh-oh. Too late. The grips were on, and wouldn't come off, so one of the grips had to be cut off. Consequently, my red Huffy always had just one hand grip.

That lesson learned many years ago reminds me that life comes so much easier when we read the instructions. In fact, God left us an instruction book: the Bible. For instance, one of the things He tells us in the Bible is that it is more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35), and yet how many people do you know who are pursuing happiness apart from giving and selflessness? Friend, do yourself a favor and read the instructions before you make a mistake. God made you, and He knows best how you are to function. For best results, consult the owner's manual.

UNITY

One of the outstanding characteristics of a strong church is unity. Division is never pleasing to God. Paul said that we are to work to keep unity (Phil. 2:2). God said that one of the things He hates most is when some sow discord among the brethren. (Proverbs 6:19)

To my Brothers and Sisters at the San Jacinto Congregation, Words cannot express the sincere thanks from all of us (the Ima Wagner family). I extend a special thank you to all that sent memorials and cards to me, but most of all thank you for your prayers. Also, thank you to Michelle's Wednesday night Bible class. The candy and Little Debbie cakes were delicious. And the scriptures the class selected are bringing solace and comfort to me. We as adults forget the "true wisdom" of a little child. When I was a child, both my parents were loving and generous to strangers with what we had.

In Christian Love,
Lisa Wagner

Every morning an old lady would open her front door and shout, "Praise God!" Her old neighbor who was an atheist would shout back, "There is no God!" One day he decided to play a trick on her and brought a big bag of groceries and put it on her porch. The old lady opened her door, saw the groceries and shouted, "Praise God! Thanks for the groceries!" The old man shouted back, "Ha, Ha! I bought the groceries, there is no God!" The old woman then shouted, "Praise God for the groceries and thank you for making the devil pay for them!"

Definition of love according to a 4-year-old child:
Love is when a girl puts on perfume and a boy puts on shaving cologne and they go and smell each other!
