

The Family

Prayer List

Betty Joy had an MRI last week to determine why she is still having so much back pain.

Jill McAllister's brother-in-law, Bobby Brazil, is on home hospice in Pampa.

Ray Burlingame has a damaged disc in his upper spine and will have back surgery after getting clearance from his cardiologist.

Burnt Offerings: My husband gave our 3-year-old granddaughter a fudgesicle. She took it and immediately started crying. When I asked what was wrong, she wailed, "Granddaddy gave me a burned popsicle!"

ELM OR EVERGREEN?

Several years ago, The Wall Street Journal carried a story about Sally, an overly conscientious youngster who made herself miserable over the smallest failures and set-backs. Early one fall, while the leaves were still on the trees, there was an exceptionally heavy snowstorm. Sally's grandfather took her for a drive during which he said, "Notice those elms; the branches are so badly broken that the trees may die. But just look at those pines and evergreens. They are completely undamaged by the storm. My child, there are two kinds of trees in the world, the foolish and the wise. An elm holds its branches rigid. As it becomes weighted down, eventually its limbs break. But when an evergreen is loaded, it simply releases, lowers its branches, and lets the burden slip away. And so it remains unharmed. Be a pine tree, granddaughter."

"Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28

MISTAKES

Erasers are such handy things
On pencils, there's no doubt.
A few quick rubs, the wrong words go,
Mistakes are soon rubbed out.
But errors of a different sort
That cannot be erased,
Are often spilled from someone's lips,
And cannot be replaced.
And with each thoughtless spoken word,
Sharp as a leopard's tooth,
The harm we do is just as great,
As some widespread untruth.
But with those careless spoken words,
Erasers play no part.
The mark we leave, by word or deed,
Cuts deep in someone's heart.

Humorous Stories

A minister had just finished an excellent dinner at the home of a congregation member, when he saw a rooster come strutting through the yard. "That's certainly a proud-looking rooster," the minister commented.

"Yes, sir," replied the farmer. "He has reason to be proud, one of his sons just entered the ministry!"

Our daughter-in-law served a delicious lasagna dinner, but our granddaughter, Samantha, age 5, claimed that she didn't like lasagna and couldn't eat it. Her dad insisted she should at least try some. She sat quietly, with her head bowed and her hands folded in her lap while the rest of us enjoyed the meal. At last her dad asked Samantha what she was praying for. She replied, "For all the starving children of the world to come and eat it!"

As our 4-year-old granddaughter, Jayna, and her daddy were going upstairs, he was singing. He jokingly asked, "Jayna, do you think I have a beautiful voice?" Jayna replied, "No, Daddy, but I like it!"

Announcements

Visitation Team Three need to see Kenneth Moore for your assignments after evening services.

Remember that we are collecting as many rolls of paper towels as we can for The Children's Home of Lubbock. They will be here April 10th.

Frank, Michelle, and Aubrey will be in Connecticut for the next two Sundays.

Due to Spring Break, we will not have Ladies Bible Class on Wednesday.

Congratulations to Audrey Williams on the birth of a great-grandson, born December 31st. This is the grandson of Charles Cathcart.

There will be a pounding for Dale & Elnora Dennis on Sunday, March 30th, after the Key to the Kingdom taping.
