HOW DEEP CAN I DRINK

A small boy from a Chicago slum was taken to the hospital with a broken leg. There were seven children in his family and hunger often went unsatisfied. Even a glass of milk, when such could be afforded, had to be shared by at least two or more. A finger would be placed on a certain spot and the child who was about to drink would be cautioned, “Only to here!” During his hospital stay a nurse brought the little boy a large glass of milk. He looked at the glass longingly and then asked, How deep can I drink?” With tears welling up in her eyes, the nurse replied “As deep as you want!”

Jesus once called out in a crowd, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink” (John 7:37). Christ is to the thirsty soul what water is to the thirsty mouth. Thirst, when intense, can be a most unpleasant and even painful sensation. The dry throat, the swollen tongue, and the parched, broken lips are precursors of death unless water in some form is quickly administered. Next to air, water is the requisite of life.

Only when there is “thirst,” desire within the dying soul, do persons drink of Christ. Unfortunately, upon imbibing the initial draft which brings the remission of sins, some feel no need for further drinking. It is as if they think that the water of life can all be swallowed in one big gulp!

As with the little boy, our desire will govern how deeply we drink. We can but imagine how such an impoverished lad would drink and drink still more from such a full glass. So it is with us; the supply of Christ for our thirsty souls is abundant and exhaustless. Why do we drink so sparingly?

Our Bible classes, worship assemblies, and Gospel meetings are for “the thirsty.” Do not deny your soul the drink it must have. How true it is: we drink or we die!

“Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.” Matthew 5:7

Love

Love is when Mommy sees Daddy smelly and sweaty and still says he is handsomer than Robert Redford. —Chris age 7

We express our sympathy to Barbara Polk and her family on the death of her sister last week. She lived in Texhoma.

Dear members of San Jacinto church of Christ, Your array of foods and moral support is so very appreciated. Thank everyone for us.

Mary Margaret Vermeulen & Family
(We provided food and a funeral meal for the family of Mary Margaret Kempson, the grandmother of Aubrey Grepson, a 4-year-old child who was attending our Wednesday night Bible classes and Camp Wednesday.)

“I’m Sorry”

Want the key to a lasting marriage? Try apologizing to your spouse! A study of 7,950 Americans conducted by pollsters Zogby for ThePearlOutlet.com found that having a willingness to apologize strengthens a couple’s bond.

“The secret of a lasting marriage is being prepared to accept that the other person has an equally valid viewpoint and being willing to apologize because you love them and want them to be happy,” says Andrea Marshall, a marital therapist and author.

Married folks are also far more likely than singles to apologize first when they feel they’re just partly to blame for an argument. Why? People who are dating often believe if a relationship isn’t perfect you should just move on, but those in a marriage have realized the perfect relationship doesn’t happen overnight.

—Marriage Partnership

“Go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.” (Prov. 6:3)

The Perfect Man

A panel of women debated on what they thought was perfect man. You would have thought they would have decided upon some actor or athlete or even a wealthy tycoon. They decided that the perfect man was MR. POTATO HEAD!

They gave four reasons: He’s tan, he’s cute, he knows the importance of accessorizing, and if he looks at another girl you can rearrange his face —Guy McGraw

What is love? Love is like a little old woman and a little old man who are still friends even after they know each other so well. —Tommy age 6

Announcements

Remember that we are collecting as many rolls of paper towels as we can for The Children’s Home of Lubbock. They will be here April 10th.

Instead of a pounding for Dale & Elnora, we are giving money to support their work in Tanzania. You can put your money in the canister in the foyer or give it to Martha.

We will have a pot-luck luncheon today after Key to the Kingdom. If you forgot to bring a covered dish, please come anyway. There will be plenty of food. All visitors are welcome.

Please get your recipes to Sue Hershey for the San Jacinto Cook Book.

If anyone knows about a need for food following a surgery or illness, please notify an elder’s wife.
