YOU NEVER STUMP YOUR TOE WHILE STANDING STILL

A boastful voice may say, "I could have told you:
...if you care about people, you risk being hurt and disappointed."

...if you teach someone the Bible, you will risk being misunderstood, misquoted, or even embarrassed at times."

...if you share your prosperity with others in need, you will risk being taken, thought a fool, and you may even go broke."

...if you take the lead in some good work, you risk making mistakes in judgment and taking the blame for the failures."

The voice comes to taunt, "I could have told you..." But brethren, it is not the voice of God that says, "sit still and do nothing out of fear!" He did not give us a "spirit of fear" (2 Timothy 1:7).

The Lord's business is risky business in the eyes of the materialist. But to those who love and trust God, there is no risk, only reward. We see our goal ahead and not the pebbles of the roadway!

The apostle Paul not only stumped his toes traveling with the gospel, he was stoned, beaten with rods, shipwrecked (2 Corinthians 11:25), despised (1 Corinthians 4:10), forsaken by those he helped (2 Timothy 4:16), and considered by many to be foolish (1 Corinthians 4:10). Someone in his generation probably said, "I could have told you... But Paul knew all the risks, and still chose to be active in the Lord's work.

James 4:17 still reads, "Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin." When we know to do good, but fail because of lack of effort, it shows our lack of faith in God. Those who do nothing may brag that they never stumped their toes, but they also never go anywhere in the Lord's work.

Study carefully the scene in Matthew 25 regarding those who did nothing and hear the voice of the Lord say, "Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire (vs.41). Now, I ask, dear reader: Who really is foolish and who really runs greater risks - those who bury their talents and stand still doing nothing, or those who, like Paul, "press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:14).

BULLETIN DIGEST

Edward Thomason
Central church of Christ
Paducah, KY

Dear Friends,

Thank you for the support, cards, calls, prayers and concern on my behalf after my recent surgery. Also, thank you for the sympathy cards and prayers for my family and me on death of my sister, Alva Jane Sewell. All the prayers and cards for my sister, Wanda Price, who broke her back, are also greatly appreciated. This is a wonderful church family and your concern and support during this trying time has been a such a help.

In Christian Love,
Barbara Polk

Seven Minds Of Christianity

MIND YOUR TONGUE - Let it not speak hasty, cruel, unkind or wicked words.

MIND YOUR EYES - Do not permit them to look on wicked things.

MIND YOUR HANDS - Do not let them steal, write evil or fight.

MIND YOUR EARS - Do not listen to wicked speeches,
songs or words.

MIND YOUR HEART - Do not let love of sin dwell in it.

MIND YOUR LIPS - Speak only pure words. Do not stain them with poisons.

MIND YOUR FEET - Do not let them walk in the paths of the ungodly.

BULLETIN DIGEST

The young lady was applying for the secretarial position at the church. She came to the question, "Marital status" - She replied without hesitation "Hopeful."

Three preachers were having lunch in a diner. One said, "you know, since summer started I've been having trouble with bats in my loft and in the attic at church. I've tried everything —noise, spray, cats—and nothing seems to scare them away."
Another said, "Me too. I've got hundreds living in my attic.
I've even had the place fumigated, and they won't go away."
The third said, "I baptized all mine, they became members of the church and I haven't seen one back since!"
