ALL THINGS CONSIDERED
WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE?

One man said to his friend, "What do you believe about God?"

"I believe what my church believes."

"What does your church believe?"

"My church believes what I believe."

"What do you and your church believe?"

"We both believe the same thing."

It is sad to say but this is about all some people know about God and His written word. Many, it seems, are counting on someone else to do their own study of the Bible. Paul warns us, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad." (2 Corinthians 5:10) We must all, as individuals, stand before the judgment seat of Christ. We cannot rely on anyone else at that time, but we will all receive what we individually deserve from the Lord. Paul continued, "Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men." (2 Corinthians 5:11) If I persuade you of only one thing today, it is this: please study your Bible for yourself.

Do you have the same love for the Bible that the writer of Psalm 119 had? Each of its twenty-eight sections extols the power of the Bible. Verses 113-120 are typical of the beautiful thoughts about the Word:

I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love. Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word. Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God. Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope. Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually. Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood. Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies. My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

Can you truly say with the psalmist, "I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love?"

House to House/Heart to Heart

We express our heartfelt sympathy to Estalene Morrell and family on the death of Marvin last Friday. Our thoughts and prayers are with all the family and friends. He will be missed so very much.

Martha Jones and the funeral committee want to thank all of the people that brought food and the helpers who worked in the kitchen preparing the meal for the Morrell family.

ONLY A NAIL

A man in Haiti wanted to sell his house for two thousand dollars. Another man wanted to buy it; but he was poor, he could not afford the full price. After some bargaining the seller agreed to sell the house for half the asking price, with one simple stipulation. He would retain ownership of one small nail protruding from just over the door. Several years passed. The original owner wanted to repurchase the house, but the new owner did not want to sell. The first owner found the carcass of a dead dog, and hung it on the single nail he still owned. Not long afterwards the house became available.

Sin in relationships is real. If we do not fight it daily and confess it when we fail, the devil will come and hang his decaying refuse on the exposed nail of our hearts. Therefore, let us resolve to confess our sins and enjoy God's forgiveness.

LET'S KEEP HIM

The children begged for a hamster, and after the vows that they would care for it, they got one. They named it Danny. Two months later, when Mom found herself responsible for the creature, she located a prospective new home for it.

The children took the news of Danny's imminent departure quite well, though one of them remarked, "He's been around here a long time. We'll miss him."

"Yes," Mom replied, "But he's too much work for one person, and since I'm that one person, I say he goes."

Another child offered, "Well, maybe if he wouldn't eat so much and wouldn't be so messy, we could keep him."

But Mom was firm. "It's time to take Danny to his new home now," she insisted. "Go and get his cage."

With one voice and in tearful outrage the children shouted, "Danny? We thought you said Daddy!"
