SIR EDMUND HILLARY FALLS TO HIS DEATH

At age thirty-three on May 29, 1953, at 11:30 A.M., Sir Edmund Hillary was the first man to summit the world's tallest mountain, Mount Everest—29,035 feet. He was accompanied by a Nepalese Sherpa named Tenzing Norgay. Recalling the moment, he wrote, "I then realized that the ridge ahead, instead of still monotonously rising, now dropped sharply away, and far below I could see the North Col and the Rongbuk Glacier. I looked upwards to see a narrow snow ridge running up to a snowy summit. A few more whacks of the ice-axe in the firm snow, and we stood on the top."

At age 88, on January 11, 2008, fifty-five years later, Sir Hillary fell to death as have all others in the world's history, with but two exceptions. The Bible's words once again ring true: "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (1 Corinthians 15:22). Death is an appointment all must meet, "And it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). The pinnacle of physical accomplishments washes out against the background of eternity.

What analogous Mount Everest have you conquered? Has the educational level or degree you sought been gained? Has the steady, good paying job or respected position you wanted been yours for years? Has the house you wanted been made a home and served as a refuge of safety from the world? Has the challenging goal been met that made you employee of the month, salesman of the year, or honored community service award recipient? Again, we observe that the pinnacle of physical accomplishments washes out against the background of eternity.

From God, James wrote, "Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away" (James 4:14). The width and depth and height of eternity is the canvas upon which we paint the picture of our lives. We cannot choose the colors or the texture, but the brush is in our hands. The ridge of life is still monotonously rising but soon will drop sharply away.

Christians have a blessed assurance from God. As the psalmist wrote: "Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory" (Psalm 73:24). "Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall" (1 Corinthians 10:12).

House to House Heart to Heart

Dear Church Family,
My family and I would like to thank everyone for all you have done for us the past week. The food the day of the funeral was delicious. We love you all dearly.

THE OTHER SIDE

A sick man turned to his country doctor as he was preparing to leave the examination room and said, "Doctor, I am afraid to die. Tell me what lies on the other side."

Very quietly, the doctor said, "I don't know."

"You don't know? You, a Christian man, do not know what is on the other side?"

The doctor was holding the handle of the door, on the other side came a sound of scratching and whining. As he opened the door, a dog sprang into the room and leaped on him with an eager show of gladness.

Turning to the patient, the doctor said, "Did you notice my dog? He's never been in this room before. He didn't know what was inside. He knew nothing except that his master was here, and when the door opened, he sprang in without fear. I know little of what is on the other side of death, but I do know one thing. I know my Master is there and that is enough."

URGENT

As he was filling out an employment application, a man paused over this question: "Person to notify in case of an accident." Finally he wrote, "Anybody in sight."

A businessman well known for his ruthlessness once announced to writer Mark Twain, "Before I die I mean to make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I will climb Mount Sinai and read the Ten Commandments aloud at the top."

"I have a better idea," replied Mark Twain. "You can stay in Boston and keep them!"

**

"I know my older sister loves me because she gives me all her old clothes and has to go out and buy new ones."

Announcements

Visitation Team Four will not meet tonight due to the Memorial Day holiday.

This summer, help keep our High Plains Children's Home kids in "mint" condition! Please fill a CAN this summer and participate in the 24th annual "CHANGE FOR CHILDREN" campaign. This year's goal is to raise $50,000. By putting your $8.66 a month in your CAN for 3 months, the goal will be achieved! See Jimmy Jurajda to get your can if you have not received it in the mail.

There will be a Gospel Meeting at Amarillo Church of Christ June 15th - 22nd. Jerry McCorkle will be presenting a study of the book of Revelation. There is a flyer in the foyer with more details.
