MEET THE TATER FAMILY

- Some people never seem motivated to participate, but are just content to watch while others do the work. They are called "Speck Taters."
- Some people never do anything to help, but are gifted at finding fault with the way others work. They are called "Common Taters."
- Some people are very bossy and like to tell others what to do, but don't want to soil their own hands. They are called "Dick Taters."
- Some people are always looking to cause problems by asking others to agree with them. They are called "Agie Taters."
- There are those who say they will help, but somehow just never get around to actually doing anything. They are called "Hezzie Taters."
- Some people can put up a front and pretend to be someone they are not. They are called "Emma Taters."
- Then there are those who love others and do what they say they will. They are always prepared to stop whatever they are doing and lend a helping hand. They bring real sunshine into the lives of others. They are called "Sweet Taters."

"By love serve one another." Galatians 5:13

GREAT PREACHING

A mechanic went to hear a visiting evangelist in a little town. The preacher preached that night on money and presented the sermon under three points.

First point: "Make all you can." The mechanic nudged his wife and said, "That man is the best I've ever heard. He is no nitwit. He knows what it's all about. He is one smart man."

Second Point: "Save all you can." This excited the mechanic and he whispered again, "This beats anything I've ever heard. He's smart enough to be President. This town has never had a preacher that could hold a candle to him." The preacher commended hard work and thrift, denouncing laziness and waste. The mechanic could not keep quiet. He whispered, "I've believed this all my life."

Third Point: "Give all you can." "Oh my," exclaimed the mechanic, "now he's gone crazy. He has quit preaching and gone to meddling."

Thought: Is it not strange that some people's conception of great preaching is a sermon that compliments them and rebukes others? Remember—your preacher did not write the Bible. He is not responsible for any word in it, but he is definitely responsible for preaching every word in it. And when it is preached, people judge themselves by their reaction to it. —

Dear Elders & Members of San Jacinto Church of Christ, I am Faye Rampley, younger sister of Vera Markart and mother of Dwight Rampley, who spoke at Pat Horne Henson's memorial service on June 18.

My family & I have attended many services at San Jacinto on various occasions during the years since Vera and her family moved from Lubbock to Amarillo in 1960.

We are always inspired by the sermons, uplifted by the beautiful singing, and impressed by the friendliness of your congregation.

Please accept my sincere thanks & appreciation for your gracious hospitality in providing the delicious meal for our large family who came from the surrounding area for the service.

I commend you for your steadfast adherence to Christian principles in conducting the work of the church in difficult situations.

I am enclosing a donation to the church "In memory of my niece Pat Horne Henson."

May God bless each of you!

In Christian Love,

Faye Rampley

Mildred, the church gossip and self-appointed arbiter of the church's morals, kept sticking her nose into other people's business. Several residents were unappreciative of her activities, but feared her enough to maintain their silence. She made a mistake, however, when she accused George, a new member, of being an alcoholic, after seeing his pickup parked in front of the town's only bar. She commented to George and others that everyone seeing his truck there would know what he was doing. George, a man of few words, stared at her and then walked away. Later that evening, George quietly parked his truck in front of Mildred's house...and left it there all night.
