SEE ONLY CHRIST

You are familiar, no doubt, with one of the most famous paintings ever done by an artist: The Lord's Supper by Leonardo da Vinci, that classic portrayal of Christ and the twelve apostles at the table.

Many students of art history believe that the painting, when first created, was somewhat different from the version which we now see. There was initially, it is believed, an exquisite lace border on the tablecloth. When, immediately upon completion, da Vinci invited a group of art students to view his masterpiece, they were immensely impressed by the delicate design of the lacework. They studied it intensely and praised it highly.

Upon seeing the reaction of these young men, the artist took up a brush, dipped it, and made a few long strokes across the canvas, obliterating the lace. Then, with uncontrollable feeling, he shouted, "Now look at the face of Christ!"

How easily we take our view off of Christ and put it upon some nice distraction. The Hebrew writer urged "fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God" (Hebrew 12:2).

Let us fix our eyes upon Him. Let us see His beauty, His love, His grace and His commitment to us. Then let us walk in His steps (1 Peter 2:21-25).

BULLETIN DIGEST

Phil Sanders

SURE CURE FOR WORRY

The reporter had been assigned to interview a widow who had successfully raised a large family. She had six children of her own, and had adopted twelve more. The last of the 18 was graduating from high school. Through it all the lady had been stable and calmly confident. "What is the secret?" asked the reporter. "I'm in a partnership," she said. "A partnership?" "Yes. Many years ago I said, 'Lord, I'll do the work and you do the worrying.'" *****

One day a little girl was watching her mother do the dishes. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair mixed in with the brunette ones. She asked her mother, "Why are some of your hairs white, Mom?" Her mother replied, "Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white." The little girl thought awhile and asked, "So, how come ALL of grandma's hairs are white?"

Dear Church Family,

Thank you for the warm and loving welcome you have given me at San Jacinto and for the many birthday cards you have sent to me. I do love and appreciate each of you and pray God's blessings on you.

Johnie Lowrance

Ida Fortenberry was released from BSA Rehab on Tuesday, July 8th. She will be in the DFW area to stay with her son for 2-3 weeks before returning to Edmond. Thank you for all your prayers during her recovery.

Jennifer Womack

Sadye Norris, daughter of Edra Wilson and sister of Noni Hartwell and Juanita Richardson is now in hospice in Port Orange, Florida. Please remember our family in your prayers. Thanks,

Noni

Even though the tongue weighs practically nothing—it is surprising how few persons are able to hold it.

My "sweet potato," do you "carrot" all for me? You are the "apple" of my eye with your "radish" hair and "turnip" nose—my heart "beets" for you. My love for you is strong as "onions." If we "cantaloupe"—"lettuce" marry and we will make a happy "pear."

After a very long sermon the members filed out of the church saying nothing to the preacher. Toward the end of the line was a thoughtful person who always commented on the sermons. "Preacher, today your sermon reminded me of the peace and love of God!" The preacher was thrilled. "No one has ever said anything like that about my preaching before. Tell me why." "Well, it reminded me of the Peace of God because it passed all understanding and the Love of God because it endured forever!"

A little boy was overhead praying, "Lord, if you can't make me a better boy, don't worry about it. I'm having a real good time like I am."

"Dear God, Thank you for my baby brother, but what I prayed for was a horse."
