STANDIING FOR OUR FAITH

During World War II, as allied armies marched into Germany on their way to Berlin, retreating German soldiers often switched road signs and destroyed landmarks in an effort to confuse their enemy. And, to an extent, it worked, for many a GI followed a false marker only to end up in the wrong place. Also, today, those giving spiritual wrong directions are abundant. There is a need for godly people to challenge and oppose those giving incorrect directions.

The book of Jude is one of the more obscure epistles to many. Though only one chapter, it contains powerful truths. Jude is a letter written in response to teachers, who came along within the church and set up false markers, leading people astray by distorting the Christian faith. The result was that many were influenced to accept false doctrines and were led away from God.

Jesus spoke of blind guides leading others into spiritual destruction (Matt. 23:14; 23:24). Sometimes it is ignorant teachers who lead others in the wrong way. Far more tragic are false teachers who know better and still lead some along the broad way.

How are we to react to those who give wrong spiritual directions? Jude calls for us to “contend for the faith which was one delivered unto the saints”.

To earnestly contend means to strive for, to struggle for, the faith. Albert Barnes wrote, “The reference here, of course, is only to contention by argument, by reasoning, by holding fast the principles of religion, and maintaining them against all opposers.” The tense of this participle in the Greek indicates we are to take a stand and to continue firmly against all Opposition.

All members of the Lord’s church should be able and willing to defend the truth of God. Situations often present themselves as opportunities to take a position consistent with God’s truth. We must defend the teaching of the Bible not only on doctrine, but also morality.

WHAT WE ARE

“We are not human beings going through a temporary spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings going through a temporary human experience.”

Dear San Jacinto Church,
Thank you for the Christian love you showered on mother, Erma Jackson, during the last years of her life. The Halls, Dannelleys, Pences, Duncans, Jack Phillips and others who delivered the Lord’s Supper to her each Sunday; and Lynn Duncan who came to visit on so many occasions. All were so very much appreciated. May God continue to bless you as you continue to serve Him.

In Christ,
Fred & Linda Anderson

Dear San Jacinto Church family,
Thank you so much for the cards & calls during my surgeries. It has truly been a trying time and the encouragement I received from you makes you even closer than ever as my brothers & sisters in the Lord.

Love and thanks again,
Cheryl Harper

An older lady was complaining about a new contemporary song used in the worship service at her church. A fellow worshipper responded, “Why, that is not a new song! David sang that song to Saul.”

The older lady replied, “Well now, for the first time I understand why Saul threw the javelin at him when he sang.”

Years ago, because of a shortage of maids in England, the minister’s wife advertised for a manservant. The next morning a nicely dressed young man came to the front door. “Can you start the breakfast by seven o’clock?” asked the minister.

“I guess so,” answered the man.

“Can you polish all the silver, wash all the dishes, do the laundry, take care of the lawn, wash windows, iron clothes, and keep the house neat and tidy?”

“Say, preacher,” said the young fellow rather meekly, “I came here to see about getting married but if it’s going to be as much work as all that, you can count me out right now.”

The evening news is where they begin with “Good evening,” and then proceed to tell you why it isn’t.

When you’re right, no one remembers. When you’re wrong, no one forgets.
