"GOD BLESS AMERICA"

The Democratic and Republican National Conventions have come and gone. As a concerned citizen of this great nation, and more importantly, as a citizen of the kingdom of God, I believe it to be vitally important to know where the candidates stand on the issues, especially those relating to God and morality. I know that many people vote for the candidate that best assures them financial and national security. These issues are important, but are they what's MOST important? I think not!

As I listened to the speech of one of the presidential nominees, I became quite troubled with what I heard. He had much to say about what he would do if he were president, but then he concluded by endorsing a woman's right to choose (abortion) and same-sex marriages (homosexuality). He stated that we may not all agree on these issues; we can look past them and together look forward to a brighter future. He then concluded by quoting a passage of scripture and saying, "God bless America." But I raise the question, "How can a president, who's been entrusted to lead a nation, ask God to bless America when he himself opposes the very principles that have made this nation great?" He wants God to bless America while abandoning His Word altogether! He wants God to bless America while upholding legislation that approves the shedding of innocent blood. He wants God to bless America while seeking to dismantle the very backbone of society—the home. Have we forgotten what happened to Judah when God and His Word were removed (2 Kings 21)? I can assure you that if we continue to ignore these issues there'll be no brighter future to look forward to!

Yes, I pray every day that God continues to bless this great nation. But I know, as I study His Word, that "righteousness exalts a nation, and that sin is a reproach to any people" (Prov. 14:34); and yes, abortion and same-sex marriages are sin and an abomination to God!

It's not my place to tell an individual who he can or can't vote for. It is, however, my place as a Christian to find the facts and to vote for the candidate who best follows God and His Word!

I DID NOT GO TO BIBLE CLASS

I went to worship today, but I did not go to Bible Class. By so doing, I told the congregation I didn't need it—I received all the spiritual strength I needed during worship. I told the children that it is not necessary for them to go to Bible class either; I think you can skip it and still be a "faithful" Christian. I told the strangers passing by the church building that I'm not interested in helping them to learn more about the Lord and the way of salvation. I realize that they cannot be saved without obeying the Gospel and a series of good Bible classes could help them, but that is no real concern of mine. I told God that I had studied enough of His Word already. I do not care to hear it read anymore. I do not care to have a part in discussing it. I do not care to be close to Him.

BULLETIN DIGEST

Coming out of church, Mrs. Smith asked her husband, "Do you think that Johnson girl is tinting her hair?" "I didn't even see her," admitted Mr. Smith. "And that dress Mrs. Davis was wearing," continued Mrs. Smith, "really, don't tell me you think that's the proper outfit for a mother of two." "I'm afraid I didn't notice that either," said Mr. Smith. "Oh, for heaven's sake," snapped Mrs. Smith, "a lot of good it does you to go to church."
