SHEEP DON'T WALLOW

The story is told of a lamb and his mother. It seems the lamb passed the pig pen each morning on the way to pasture with his mother. Watching the pigs wallow in the mud seemed like fun and on an especially hot day the lamb asked his mother if he could jump the fence and wallow in the cool mud. She replied, "No." Then the lamb asked the question, "Why?" The mother just said, "Sheep don't wallow." This did not satisfy the lamb. He felt she had "put him down," exercised force she shouldn't have, etc. So, as soon as the mother was out of sight the lamb ran to the pig pen and jumped the fence. He was soon feeling the cool mud on his feet, his legs, and soon his stomach. After a few moments he decided he had better go back to his mother, but he couldn't! He was stuck. Mud and wool don't mix. His pleasure had become his prison. He was hopelessly bound by his own folly. He cried out and was rescued by a kindly farmer. When cleaned and returned to the fold, his mother said, "Remember, sheep don't wallow." Sin is like that. It looks nice, so easy to escape when we wish—but it is not so. Pleasure becomes prison.

Christians don't wallow! (1 John 2:15)

To God's family at San Jacinto,

Your love, concern, prayers and visits for our Dad will always be remembered with great tenderness. It was truly a miracle to see how God healed our Dad. We know He was answering many prayers that were offered in his behalf.

You are a very special group of Christians and our Dad is very blessed to be a part of your family.

Please accept our thanks for all you have done. We ask to still be in your prayers in the days to come!!

Our love in Him,
The Love Family— Robert & Bonnie, Randy & Sharon,
Elaine, Ronnie & Sharon

"Senior Moment"

"Where is my Sunday paper?" the irate customer loudly demanded, calling the newspaper office. "Ma'am," said the newspaper employee, "Today is Saturday. The Sunday paper is not delivered until tomorrow, on Sunday." After a long pause, the customer said "Well, that explains why I was the only one at church today!"

A 4-year-old boy was asked to say the blessing for the Thanksgiving dinner. He began thanking God for his mommy, his daddy, his grandparents and all the extended relatives, naming them one by one. Then he began thanking God for the food. He gave thanks for the turkey, dressing, fruit salad, cranberry sauce, cakes, pies and even the Cool Whip. He paused, and after a long silence, looked up and asked, "If I thank God for the broccoli, won't He know I'm lying?"

Announcements
