ADVICE FROM A FARMER

Life is lived too quickly to insist on making all of the mistakes yourself. How much better it would be if we listened to the advice of those who have gone before us.

Since everyone has a unique point of view, perhaps we can learn something valuable from an old farmer:

1. Life is simpler when you plow around the stumps.
2. A bumble bee is faster than a John Deere tractor.
3. Forgive your enemies. It messes up their heads.
4. Don't ever corner someone meaner than you.
5. You can never un-say a cruel word.
6. When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.
7. The best sermons are lived, not preached.
8. Most stuff we worry about don't never happen.
9. Silence is sometimes the best answer.
10. Never judge folks by their relatives.
11. Meanness don't jes' happen overnight.
12. A real smart person can carry a big grudge.
13. If you're in a hole, stop digging.
14. Sometimes you get, and sometimes you get got.
15. Always drink upstream from the herd.

The only place you can get homespun advice like that is from King Solomon who wrote the book of Proverbs. It's brief and pungent advice. Solomon lived a rich and full life, and at the end of it he was able to write advice that will save you heartache, embarrassment and money! —Waterview church of Christ

WHY MEN ARE SELDOM DEPRESSED

(Women ought to read this)

There's a rumor going around that men don't get depressed as often as women. I can't verify that claim, but I recently read some material that suggests why it might be true.

If you're a man, depression is warded off because:

1. Your last name stays the same for your whole life.
2. Wedding plans take care of themselves.
3. Chocolate is just another snack.
4. Car mechanics tell you the truth.
5. You never have to drive to another gas station because the first restroom was just too icky.
6. Your wrinkles (some say) add character to your face.
7. Phone conversations are over in 30 seconds flat.
8. A 10-day vacation requires only one suitcase.
9. You can open your own jars.

10. Three pairs of shoes are more than enough for you.
11. You can play with toys all your life.
12. You can do Christmas shopping for 25 relatives starting on December the 24th.

I can't vouch for the truthfulness of the statements listed above, but I can read in my Bible that God made them "male and female." (Genesis 1:27).

Without a doubt, God had something in mind when he made the two different. The differences make them a supplement to each other. Trying to force both into one mold doesn't seem to be what God had in mind. Even though a lot of humor is created in the process, perhaps we ought to listen to God and celebrate the differences.

Once there was a millionaire who collected live alligators. He kept them in a pool in back of his mansion. He also had a beautiful daughter who was single. One day he decided to throw a party. He announced, "My dear guests, I have a proposition to every man here. I will give one million dollars or my daughter to the man who can swim across this pool full of alligators and emerge alive!"

As soon as he finished his last word, there was the sound of a large splash! There was one guy in the pool swimming with all he could and screaming out of fear. The crowd cheered him on as he kept stroking as though he was running for his life. Finally, he made it to the other side with only a torn shirt and some minor injuries. The millionaire was impressed. He said, "My boy, that was incredible! Fantastic! I didn't think it could be done! Well, I must keep my end of the bargain. Do you want my daughter or the one million dollars?" The guy said, "Listen, I don't want your money, nor do I want your daughter! I want the person who pushed me into that water!"
