

The Family

Edra Wilson is in room 325 at Plum Creek Specialty Hospital. She is having problems with congestion and a bladder infection.

Denny Ivey, son of Christine Dennis, is in Ben Taub Hospital in Houston for treatment of a staph infection in his leg.

T. R. Langham, former member, had a pacemaker implanted last week. He had to go back to surgery after a wire came loose. He is now home.

Nita Griffin, sister of Martha Estes, has been moved to NWT Rehab room 2911. Pray for her success at rehab so she can go home. I want to thank all of you for your prayers and concern.

Nothing is politically correct when it is morally wrong.

“God Can Put The Letters Together”

A little shepherd boy was watching his sheep one Sunday morning. As he heard the bells ringing for the people to come to the church, he watched them and began to think that he too would like to communicate with God. But what can I say? he thought. He had never learned a prayer. So on bended knee, he began to recite the alphabet—“A...B...C...D,” and so on until he reached “Z,” and then repeated his “prayer” several times.

A man passing by heard the boy’s voice, and stopping to look through the bushes, saw the child kneeling with folded hands and closed eyes, saying, “J...K...L...M.” He interrupted the boy by asking, “What are you doing, my little friend?” The boy replied, “I was praying, sir.” Surprised, the man said, “But why are you reciting the alphabet?”

The boy explained, “I don’t know any prayers, sir. But I want God to take care of me and help me to care for the sheep. So, I thought if I said all I knew, He could put the letters together and spell all that I want to say and should say.” The man smiled and said, “Bless your heart. You’re right, God will!” Then he went on to church, knowing he had already heard the finest sermon he could possibly hear that day.

Remember that Jesus told us to have faith like a child. When we go to God in prayer, we mustn’t worry whether we know the right things to say. God can put the thoughts and feelings together and send the answer that we need even when we don’t know what we need. Friends, the Bible assures us that even though we don’t understand it, God is mindful of us. David said in Psalms 8:4-5: “What is man that thou are mindful of him?” and yet he concludes that God is mindful and has “crowned him with glory and honor.”

I may not know what to say to God. I may not have my problems figured out. I may not know what I need to be asking God for, but thank the Lord that He knows the alphabet of my scrambled thoughts and hurts, and thank the Lord He can put the words together and answer my needs. I know down deep in my heart that in times like these, we have an anchor of hope for our prayers. “Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil.” (Hebrews 6:19) Remember this great Christian hymn:

In times like these, you need an anchor.

In times like these you need a Savior.

*Be very sure...Be very sure
Your anchor holds, and grips the solid rock.
This rock is Jesus, yes He’s the one,
This rock is Jesus, the only one.
Be very sure...Be very sure...
Your anchor holds, and grips the solid rock.*

A CHILDLIKE FAITH

An unbelieving teacher told her class there were no real miracles in the Bible. She said, “Take, for instance, the crossing of the Red Sea. We know this body of water was only about six inches deep.”

A boy toward the back of the room shouted, “Praise God for that miracle!” The irritated teacher asked, “What miracle?”

“God drowned the whole Egyptian army in just six inches of water,” said the boy. “That had to be a miracle.”

(The above story was told by Joe Barnett in one of his articles. It illustrates why the Lord recommended that our faith be like that of a child.)

Cande Moore would like to thank everyone for the prayers and concern on her behalf during her recent illness. She is feeling much better.

Some people exercise about as much tact as the young preacher at his first funeral. Being nervous, and not knowing just how to begin, he pointed to the casket and blurted out: “What you see there is nothing but an empty shell—the nut is gone.”

My 2-year-old great-grandson, Julian, was sitting in church with his grandmother. A lady in front of them raised her hands and said, “Praise the Lord!” Julian raised his hands and said, “Go Cowboys!”

James and Martha will be out of the office the 21st.-25th. They will be in Hollywood.
