WORN-OUT KNEES

On February 26, 1829, a Jewish boy named Loeb Strauss was born in a cottage in the Bavarian village of Buttenheim.

As a young man, Loeb changed his name to Levi and wound up in California, where he opened a textile company in San Francisco. One day a gold miner walked into Levi's shop and assailed the young merchant. "Look at these," said the miner, pointing to the pants. "I bought 'em six months ago, and now they're full of holes!"

When Levi asked why, the miner explained, "We work on our knees most of the time."

"What you need is some really strong material," replied Levi. "We have some canvas. It's used to make tents. If we make your trousers out of canvas, I am sure they won't get holes."

A tailor was called, and presently the miner had a set of trousers—and the rest is history. Soon miners across the West were wearing Levi Strauss's jeans. —Stephen Van Dulken (from Knee-Mail)

THOUGHT: Christians should have the same problem that plagued that miner—pants with worn-out knees—for we ought to do most of our kingdom work on our knees. "For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." (Ephesians 3:14)

LESSER SIN?

The devil, according to an old story, once gave a man the choice of committing the sin of murder or adultery or drunkenness. Thinking that drunkenness was the lesser of the three, he chose that. However, while drunk, he committed adultery and murder. Sin develops! —From Studying Sin Seriously, Wendell Winkler

WATER OF LIFE

A preacher was speaking on the subject, "Jesus, the Water of Life." A Moslem interrupted him and said, "Your religion is like this little stream of water, but Islam is like a great ocean!" "Yes," said the preacher, "but there is this difference: when men drink ocean water they die! But when they drink the water of life which Christ gives they live forever!"

JUST BE SINCERE

A popular religious saying is: "It makes no difference what you believe just as long as you are sincere." Ironically, this is not true in any other realm.

Imagine a chemistry lab where there are three bottles on the table. One bears the symbol H₂SO₄ (sulfuric acid), one bears the symbol HCL (hydrochloric acid), and yet another bears the symbol H₂O (water).

To the untrained eye, all three bottles appear to be the same...all are liquids and all are colorless. But a sincere person, mistaking the sulfuric acid for water, is no less dead than another person who drank the acid intentionally. One was sincerely wrong, but both are sincerely dead!

Thought: It does make a difference—in fact, an eternal difference—what a person believes. Some doctrines will condemn our souls, while other doctrines (teachings) will save our souls (1 John 9). Think about it...

Bulletin Digest

Seven-year-old John had finished his summer vacation and gone back to school. Two days later his teacher phoned his mother to tell her that John was misbehaving.

"Wait a minute," she said. "I had John here for two months and I never called you once when he misbehaved."

My young grandson called the other day to wish me Happy Birthday. He asked me how old I was, and I told him, 62. My grandson was quiet for a moment, and then he asked, "Did you start at 1?"

After putting her grandchildren to bed, a grandmother changed into old slacks and a droopy blouse and proceeded to wash her hair. As she heard the children getting more and more rambunctious, her patience grew thin. Finally, she threw a towel around her head and stormed into their room putting them back to bed with stern warnings. As she left the room, she heard the three-year-old say with a trembling voice, "Who was THAT?"

When my grandson Billy and I entered our vacation cabin, we kept the light off until we were inside to keep from attracting pesky insects. Still, a few fireflies followed us in. Noticing them before I did, Billy whispered, "It's no use, grandpa, now the mosquitoes are coming after us with flashlights!"

Announcements

We are having "greeters" between Bible Class and morning services. Today's greeters are David and Martha Jones. Next week Carl and Sharon Bean will be the greeters.

Visitation Team 4 will need to see Jim and Dolores Pence after evening services for their assignments.

Keep on filling those cans for the "Change for Children Campaign" at High Plains Children's Home.

A man was sitting on a hard, bumpy, elevated piece of rock, fishing. His wife watched him for awhile and then commented to their daughter, "Is this the same man who complains every Sunday that the church pews are too uncomfortable?"

A little girl was diligently pounding away on her grandfather's computer. She told him she was writing a story. "What is it about?" he asked. "I don't know," she replied. "I can't read."
