WHAT SHOULD I WEAR?

While preparing yourself to begin a new day, have you ever asked the question, "What should I wear?" There was a time in our country when such a question was unheard of. Most people were simply too poor to afford a multiplicity of outfits. Most people had an article of clothing for work or school and another one for church services on Sunday. In fact, years ago, the clothing worn on Sundays was generally the very best that people had. The attitude they had toward God was reflected in the attire they wore in worship to Him.

Today, we have so many articles of clothing that we struggle in deciding on which items to wear. We've certainly been blessed! Unfortunately, the choices we sometimes make relative to what we wear sends a wrong message. We say we have put on Christ in baptism (Gal. 3:27), and yet we take Him off when it comes to our attire. This has become increasingly evident within our assemblies in recent years. There's been a more casual approach to God, and nowhere is this more evident than in our dress. God has always demanded the very best from His people relative to worship. He gave us His very best in sending His Son (John 3:16). Why then would we choose not to give Him our best, including that which we wear? I'm not suggesting that everyone go out and purchase the most elegant and expensive dress or suit money can buy. And I'm certainly not insinuating that dresses and suits are the only acceptable articles of clothing that can be worn in our worship to God. What I am suggesting is that our attire profess godliness (1 Timothy 2:10), and that whatever it is we decide to wear, it be the every best we have to offer!

We've put Christ on spiritually. Let's do a better job at putting Him on physically!

HOW DO YOU SPEND YOUR TIME?

Computers have calculated that the average citizen of North America and the western world invests his 70 years in the following ways:

24 years sleeping	14 years working
6 years eating	9 years learning
4 years conversing	5 years traveling
8 years amusing themselves

QUESTION: What about God? What about time to read and study His Word? What about time to worship? Consider, if we began at birth and spent three hours a week in church services, at the end of our life we would have less than 30 months.

Think about it!

RESPECT FOR MOM

While the soldiers stood at attention during a parade, a private waved to someone in the audience. "Jones, never do that again!" the drill instructor whispered. A few minutes later, the soldier waved a second time. Back in the barracks, the DI stormed in and barked for Jones to come front and center. "You knew I was going to see you!" he screamed. "You knew it was wrong. Aren't you afraid of me?" "Yes, sir!" replied Jones. "But you don't know my mother!"

Children's Logic: "Give me a sentence about a public servant," said a teacher. A small boy wrote, "The fireman came down the ladder pregnant." The teacher took the lad aside to correct him. "Don't you know what pregnant means?" she asked. "Sure," said the young boy confidently. "It means carrying a child."

A grandfather was taking his grandchildren to their home one day when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting in the front seat was a Dalmatian dog. The children started discussing the dog's duties. "They use him to keep crowds back," said one child. "No," said another. "He's just for good luck." A third child brought the argument to a close. "They use the dogs," she said firmly, "to find the fire hydrants."

Grandpa is the smartest man on earth! He teaches me good things, but I don't get to see him enough to get as smart as him!

My grandchild who is in the 2nd grade came home from school and said, "Grandma, we learned how to make babies today." I was surprised, but tried to keep my cool. "How do you make babies?" I asked. "It's simple," replied the child. "You just change 'y' to 'i' and add 'es.'"
