DIARY OF AN UNBORN CHILD

October 5: Today my life began. My parents do not know it yet; I am as small as a seed of an apple, but it is I already. And I am to be a girl. I shall have blond hair and blue eyes. Just about everything is settled though, even the fact that I shall love flowers.

October 10: Some say that I am not a real person yet, that only my mother exists. But I am a real person, just as a small crumb of bread is truly bread. My mother is, and I am.

October 23: My mouth is just beginning to open now. Just think, in a year or so I shall be laughing, and later talking. I know what my first word will be: MaMa.

October 25: My heart began to beat today all by itself. From now on it shall gently beat for the rest of my life without ever stopping to rest! And after many years it will tire. It will stop, and then I shall die.

November 2: I am growing a bit every day. My arms and legs are beginning to take shape. But I have to wait a long time yet before those little legs will raise me to my mother's arms, before these little arms will be able to gather flowers and embrace my father.

November 12: Tiny fingers are beginning to form on my hands. Funny how small they are! I'll be able to stroke my mother's hair with them.

November 20: It wasn't until today that the doctor told Mom that I am living here under her heart. Oh, how happy she must be! Are you happy, Mom?

November 25: My Mom and dad are probably thinking about a name for me. But they don't even know that I am a girl. I want to be called Kathy. I am getting so big already.

December 10: My hair is growing. It is smooth and bright and shiny. I wonder what kind of hair Mom has.

December 13: I am just about able to see. It is dark around me. When Mom brings me into the world it will be full of sunshine and flowers. But what I want more than anything is to see my mom. How do you look, Mom?

December 24: I wonder if Mom hears the whispering of my heart? Some children come into the world a little sick. But my heart is strong and healthy. It beats so evenly: tup-tup, tup-tup. You have a healthy little daughter, Mom!

December 28: Today my mom killed me!

"If thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law."

James 2:11

IF

If you are impatient, sit down quietly and talk with Job.

If you are strong headed, go and see Moses.

If you are getting weak-kneed, take a good look at Elijah.

If you are a get along, go along man, read the book of Daniel.

If there is no song in your heart, listen to David.

If you are getting sordid, spend a while with Isaiah.

If you are getting cold and heartless, get the beloved disciple

John to put his arms around you.

If your faith is low, read the words of Paul.

If you are getting lazy, listen to James.

If you are losing sight of the future, climb up the stairs of Revelation and get a glimpse of the promised land!

Bulletin Digest

For People Who Believe Hellfire in the Bible is Figurative.

1. When God destroyed the old world using water (Gen 6-9), was "water" figurative?

2. If hellfire is figurative, explain the rich man: "I am tormented in this flame." Abraham agreed, "Thou art tormented." (Luke 16 24-25)

Bulletin Digest

Two Cajun brothers were both standing by the road, pounding a sign into the ground that read: 'Da End is Near! Turn Yourself Around Now! Before It's Too Late!' As a car sped past them, the driver leaned out his window and yelled, "You religious nuts!" From the curve they heard screeching tires and a big splash. One brother turned to the other and asked, "Do ya think maybe da sign should just say 'Bridge Out?'"

The nearsighted preacher glanced at the note given to him by an usher. The note read: "Bill Smith having gone to sea, his wife desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety."

Failing to note the punctuation, the preacher announced:

"Bill Smith, having gone to see his wife, desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety."

Announcements

We are having "greeters" between Bible Class and morning services. Today's greeters are Kenneth and Lawanda Moore. Next week, Jack and Cindy Hall will be the greeters.

Visitation Team Three needs to see Kenneth and Lawanda Moore after evening services for their assignments.

Keep on filling those cans for the "Change for Children Campaign" at High Plains Children's Home. Your can should be half-full by this time.

The Tipton Home truck will be here August 10th. They need cereal, canned sliced peaches, tuna, microwave popcorn, Jello puddings, paper napkins, large trash bags, Crest toothpaste and spray starch. Estalene will be putting bags in the foyer with lists of the needed items. If you want to donate money to them instead of the items listed, you can give it to James or Martha.

Singles 39+ Potluck will be at 6:30 Tuesday, in the Family Center.
