GOD'S ALL-SEEING EYE

During World II, Germany had devised a plan to force the British fighter force to be spread thin in "standing patrols," which would require planes in the air flying ready at all times. This process would have caused the hard-pressed British to waste precious high-octane fuel. But the Brits had a secret that monitored every move of the German bombers. Even when flying at night or emerging through cloudbanks, German pilots were stunned to discover British attack aircraft waiting in position to attack. What the Luftwaffe had not realized was that their evil actions were being watched by an invisible and undetected force made practical by a top secret invention, the cavity magnetron, now known as radar. Even though the German pilots thought they were operating in secret, their every aerial move was made visible by an unseen force.

Today, many people remain comfortable in sin thinking that their actions are cloaked in secrecy. But the Bible teaches that God's revealing light shines into the far reaches of man's actions, illuminating both that which is good and that which is evil. "No creature is hidden from Him, but all things are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give an account." (Hebrews 4:13) No matter in what situation we may find ourselves, we are always under the unseen but watchful eye of God.

On the other hand the judgment of God need not be feared by one who is in Christ (Romans 8:1). He is not "out to get us." He is "out to save us!"

To be found in Christ, one must:

- Believe in Him (Acts 16:21)
- Repent of sins (2 Corinthians 7:9-10)
- Confess Jesus before men (Romans 10:9-10)
- And be baptized (immersed) for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38; Galatians 3:26-27).

To remain in Christ one must continue to walk in the light of God's word in order to be continually cleansed by the blood of Christ (1 John 1:7-9).

Bulletin Digest Terry Livingston & David Sarqent, Sayre church of Christ—Sayre, Ok

Two female dog owners were arguing about whose dog was smarter. The first one said, "My dog is so smart, every morning he brings the newspaper to me in bed." The second woman replied, "I know." "How?" the first one asked. "My dog told me!" the second woman exclaimed.

For all your caring and sharing Melma Chandler's family thanks you. From the time in the emergency room to the recuperation time for mother—you were with us in person, in thought, in prayer!

The five weeks were a long ordeal for us in mother's healing and she is back at her room at Bivins.

God has blessed us abundantly in her recovery. We were told by doctors, nurses and therapists that "they usually don't come out of it and if so are on a ventilator." Mother beat these odds through the grace of God.

 We wanna say thanks to each, for a wonderful card
 A wonderful lift, and boy were we "tard"
 Just knowing in this world, someone cares
 And talks to God, like you were theirs
 We miss all of you, like you can't believe
 We pray that all works, and we never again leave
 The old sayin' still goes, "there's no place like home"
 And anymore, we sure don't like to roam
 We wanna get back home, to worship with you
 Where all worship, with a love so true
 If this system works, and I pray it will
 It's our Lord's fourth time, and he's there still
 Four times she's knocked, on Heaven's door
 I pray she don't knock, on that door any more
 So many prayers, some from folks we don't know
 Love in this old world, does continue to grow
 So "thanks again," for your love and prayers
 It's simply wonderful, to know someone cares
 We pray our Lord, will bless every one of you
 After all "He is the one with a love so true."
 May our Lord bless everyone.

We love you,
 James and Jean Harris

 "Well, son," asked the father as he settled down with his evening paper, "are you going to need any help with your homework tonight?" "No thanks Dad," replied the boy. "I might as well get it wrong all by myself."

 A little boy asked his Mother and Daddy, "Why do they close church and Sunday school every time we have weekend company?"
