

The Family

Audry Williams is in Bivins Rehab, room A-2. Her phone number is 350-2156. She is doing better with her rehab.

Charles Pergeson, father of Sheila Hogue, is home in Sunray.

His heart cath last week did not reveal any problems.

Geneva Nicholson has shingles.

Bill Nordyke requests visits for Rexan.

Charles Cathcart, son of Audry Williams, had cataract surgery last week.

Joe Hershey had surgery Thursday.

Sheila Hogue had a heart cath on Thursday.

After she woke up, a woman told her husband, "I just dreamed that you gave me a pearl necklace for Valentine's Day. What do you think it means?" "You'll know tonight," he said. That evening he came home with a small package and gave it to his wife. She was delighted and opened it up to find a book entitled The Meaning of Dreams.

WORK OUR WINGS OFF

Beekeepers know that a bee's age is determined by the condition of its wings. Because bees constantly work, their wings get a lot of wear and tear. Young bees have wide, well-formed wings, whereas older bees have narrow, torn, and tattered wings.

The bee does not die of old age. It dies when its wings are completely worn out and it can no longer work or fly. Near the point of death, the bee points itself away from the beehive and begins to fly, never to return again. The bee literally wears itself out working!

There is a spiritual lesson here for us. As Christians, we must be diligent servants—doing the work of the Lord. When Jesus evaluated the spiritual condition of the seven churches of Asia (Rev. 2-3), their degree of acceptance was directly proportional to the kind and amount of work they were doing.

The inspired writer, James, wrote “But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed” (James 1:25).

Let us be people who are willing to “work our wings off” in the Lord's service.

A Challenge For One Month

1. Resolve not to miss a single service of the church. No excuses this time but, for a change, make a few sacrifices for the Lord.
2. Try praying every time you have a problem or decision to make. If you feel the slightest need, pray! And while you're at it, try praying for your enemies (those with whom you don't get along too well).
3. Make it your responsibility to bring a least one visitor to services, preferably a family. Don't just invite them, make a date with them.
4. Take at least one afternoon or evening to go visiting. Not with the ones you know or like best. This time, visit someone you do not know too well, perhaps someone with whom you feel a little “strained.” Get to know them.
5. Read and study your Bible every day, even if you have to turn off the TV. Follow these simple rules, and you might be surprised at the results.

We extend our sympathy to Bill and Joyce Leonard on the death of his mother, Dru Leonard. Her services were Wednesday in Seguin.

We extend our sympathy to Joe and Sue Hershey on the death of Sue's uncle, William Merle Whitaker. His services were in Hedley on Wednesday.

Our family has been associated with the San Jacinto congregation since 1987. My mom, Edra Wilson, Jack and Juanita and James and I. Some of the happiest times were when my mom and all 3 of her daughters attended Ladies Bible Class together when Bret was our minister. Bret said, with a grin, as he remembered no one else got to talk.

The phone calls and cards, many with hand-written notes of encouragement and remembrances of Juanita will be read many times. The offers of food were not needed due to the weather and not even our family members from out of town made it due to highway and airport closures. Your offers were deeply appreciated.

We were thankful Hal Smith, Dale Dennis and Cecil Burch were able to get there along with about 40 others. We knew why you couldn't be there and were glad that people stayed off the streets unless absolutely necessary. When we got to the chapel on Friday, the front-end loader was still clearing parking spaces and we had to wade through drifts to get inside.

We knew in our hearts that you were with us. Juanita had a close personal relationship with many of you. During the last few years when she was home-bound she really enjoyed the phone calls, cards and other kindnesses.

Juanita's service was 1-29-10 at Boxwell Brothers Chapel. Thank you for your support and prayers during this sad time.

We love all of you,
The Family of Juanita Richardson

Dear San Jacinto,
We wish to thank all of you for your prayers, cards, food, and get-well wishes during George's recent illness. We love and appreciate each one of you.

In Christian Love,
George and Rebecca Gwyn

Announcements

Today's greeters are Bill and Joyce Leonard. Next week, Johnie Lowrance and Estalene Morrell will be the greeters.

Visitation Team Two need to see Jack and Cindy Hall after evening services for their assignments.

I will be mailing the contributions for Haiti on Thursday. Please get them in by Wednesday night.

Jerry Campbell will be speaking at the morning service on February 21st. He works with “In Search of The Lord's Way.”

Singles 39+ Potluck will be 6:30pm Tuesday.

My high school English teacher was well known for being a fair, but hard grader. One day I received a B minus on a theme paper. In hopes of getting a better grade and in the spirit of Valentine season, I sent her a large, extravagant, heart-shape box of chocolates with a printed note which said, “Be Mine.” The following day, I received a Valentine in return which read, “Thank you, but it is still Be Mine-Us.”
