REALITY CHECK

The mood was light and happy as the men and women walked through the barbed gate and into the camp for the first time. Rumors of the horrible activity which defiled these secluded scenes had traveled from person to person, but no one actually believed those stories. These people were nothing more than loyal followers of their fearless leader; all they wanted was a better home with better inhabitants. They looked forward to a "better Germany."

The joy and laughter turned to sorrow and crying as Allied troops led the German men and women through each building at the concentration camp after the war was over. Their eyes were opened. Their Nazi leaders had been murdering thousands of people from a variety of backgrounds and nationalities. They could no longer hide behind ignorance; they saw reality. Many of these man and women later admitted to a previous knowledge of the concentration camps, but had simply dismissed it from their minds. They became increasingly numb to the reality of mass horror and innocent bloodshed.

Christians look on the Holocaust and find it difficult to believe that many people ignored the horrors around them. However, many individuals—even Christian—seem to ignore a horrific situation—the loss of the majority of souls (Mt. 7:13-14).

Reality checks are good for Christians. Apostasy numbs one to sin. Paul said: "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron" (1 Tim. 4:1-2).

The words "seared with a hot iron" mean to bend or render insensitive. Paul described the sinful state of some as being "past feeling" (Eph. 4:19). They had become apathetic to sin's destructive forces.

We can be so accustomed to the sin around us that we lose sight of its seriousness. Are we not working as we ought because we are numb to sin?

The Lord is depending upon us to carry out His work and to stay focused (Matthew 5:14-16).

Death By Worry

A story is told about a man who came face to face with the danger of worry.

Death was walking toward a city one morning and a man asked, "What are going to do?" "I'm going to take 100 people," Death replied. "That's horrible!" the man exclaimed. "That's just the way it is," Death said. "That's what I do."

The man hurried to warn everyone about Death's plan. As evening fell, he met Death again. "You told me you were going to take 100 people," the man said. "Why did 1000 die?" "I kept my word," Death responded. "I only took 100 people. Worry took the others."

Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad (Proverbs 12:25).

"All men make mistakes, but married men find out about it sooner."—Red Skelton
