LIFE IN THE LIGHT

There is no denying that the Church is facing some real problems today. Biblical authority is being undermined. Unscriptural practices are being introduced. False doctrine is being taught. Her purity is being compromised for the sake of personal preference. Many have spoken up and spoken out. There are fine Christian men and women who have taken a stand. Some have written articles or books. Some have preached it with vigor. Others have used the television, the radio and the newspaper to voice their concern. We are thankful for these efforts. We are grateful for those Christians who stand for God and His truth. And may they always do so with boldness and conviction. However, there are some who have become so consumed with the negative that they can't see the positive. They're so busy pointing out all that's wrong with the Church that they can't find what's right. Their concern has become an obsession and, as a result, they have lost sight of the goal. The church's real purpose has gotten lost because they have become blinded by their own negativity.

Whether big things or small things, the Lord's Church is no stranger to problems. If asked, "What's wrong with the Lord's Church?" most of us could probably come up with a pretty comprehensive list. We know what's wrong. We know the bad news. It's time for the good news. What's right with the Lord's Church?

What's right with the Lord's Church is its MASTER. The Church is Christ's. It belongs to Him. He is the head. He purchased it with His own blood. What's right with the Lord's Church is its MANDATE. The Church's purpose is to save souls. It is the agency by which the story of salvation is to be told.

What's right with the Church is its MANUAL. All of God's word on any and every subject is pure and perfect because all of it is God-breathed (2 Tim. 3:16-17); therefore, we can trust our lives to its message. We can live by its teachings. It is our handbook.

What's right with the Lord's Church is its MEMBERS. You may be thinking to yourself, "I know a lot of members of the Lord's Church who aren't right." The Lord's Church is full of imperfect people. A Church can be right without being perfect as long as the members understand who they are and who they belong to. We are living stones that make up the house of God (1 Peter 2:4-5). We are a family—therefore, we should have a deep love for one another.

The Lord's design for the church is pure and perfect; it's the people that mess it up. When we ignore the head, when we dismiss the mandate, when we pervert the manual or when we divide the body, we cause the Church to be less than what she was intended to be. We destroy her purity and make her easy prey for Satan. We must protect the Lord's precious commodity. It doesn't belong to us. We are her stewards. It is up to us to see that she exists as He designed her.

Attitudes Concerning Attendance

I've been wondering why some people are here every time the door is open, while others show up only occasionally. I think it has to do with attitude more than anything else.

Some are here at every event, every worship service, because they feel like God will send them to hell if they don't. That's not good reasoning. I appreciate them being here, but to attend out of fear is missing the point.

Some are here out of habit. They have developed the pattern in their lives of being in attendance on Sunday mornings, Sunday evenings and Wednesday evenings. Habit is not all bad. They have turned their desires into discipline and their discipline into habit. There can be more to attendance than the satisfaction of habit, but their deepest desire is showing through.

Some attend as long as there are not other things interfering with that time. These are easily distracted and often gone. Some will tell us that they will decide on Sunday morning whether they will come or not. We rarely see them.

Some will come as long as they think they are going to get something out of it. While it is true that a good worship service allows all of us to take away something meaningful, coming to see what we can get is selfish.

The best attitude is displayed when people come because they want to. They like being with other Christians and they want to be encouraging to others. They know that God wants them here and that they have a deep need for the experience, but they come because they love God, love His people and want to focus their lives on the high spiritual standard of humbly bowing before the Almighty

Announcements

Today's day's greeters are Bill and Joyce Leonard. Next week, Kirk Jessup and Roy Martindale will be the greeters.

Visitation Team 1 will need to see Joe and Sue Hershey after evening services for their assignments.

Thank you to all of those who gave money for the Eastern European Mission. We will be mailing checks to them for $1,015. This will put Bibles in a whole school and have some money left over.

Immediately after arriving at my daughter's house to watch my 3-year-old grandson, Zachary, he asked if I wanted to go upstairs and play with his kitty. He told me Prissy was a clean cat and she bathed herself every night. Then he said, "Sometimes I help her clean herself. I lick her head for her."

My 5-year-old twin grandsons were enjoying a sleepover at my house. After being unruly and disobedient all evening, they were firmly ordered, "Get ready for bed, now!" Micah stood and said, "Come on, Manning, let's walk with dignity."
