

The Family

Melma Chandler, mother of Vinita Hmcir, is now back in Matador at the care center following surgery to replace the batteries in her stimulator.

At the writing of this Family News, Ronnie Hogue's mother, Patty Hogue, is in room 424-A at Nwth and Milton Hogue, father of Ronnie Hogue, is in room 562.

Mildred Smith was dismissed from the hospital and is now home.

Carol Monroe, sister of James Duncan, is in room 210 at Triumph Hospital.

O. B. Corley, father of Teal Carter, continues to be in Triumph Hospital, room 212.

A good exercise for the heart...is to bend down and help another up!

LOVE LIFTED ME

By the main warehouses in a particular town, the river channel has to be dredged often so barges can come in. The sand dredged from the river bottom is dumped on the riverbank. Children love to play on these huge sand hills. However, the mounds can be dangerous. When the wet sand dries, it creates a crust. It can collapse at any time, causing a person to sink down inside the mound and be covered instantly by the sand.

Several years ago when two brothers did not come home for dinner, their bikes were found outside the fence where the sand mounds were. Their family and rescue workers began searching frantically. They finally found one of them. He was buried up to his chin in the sand. Because of the pressure of the wet sand and muck around him, he was not breathing; so they began to dig frantically. When they uncovered him down to his waist he regained consciousness. His parents, in hysterics, said, "Where is your brother? Where's your brother? Where's your brother?"

The boy replied, "I'm standing on his shoulders." The one brother had given his life so the other might be saved. Jesus said, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13).

Jesus demonstrated this great love by giving His life for you and me. When we were sinking in the depths of sin, Jesus bore the weight of our sins on the cross (1 Peter 2:21-24), providing the means of our salvation. He invites each of us to stand on His shoulders so you and I can be saved.

We can be saved by the merits of Christ's death on the cross if we believe in Him (Acts 16:30-31), turn from our sins in repentance (Acts 17:30-31), confess Him before men (Romans 10:9-10), and are baptized—immersed—in His name for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38). Then if we continue to follow Him faithfully, He will receive us into an eternal home (1 John 1:7; John 14:1-6).

*"I was sinking deep in sin, Far from the peaceful shore,
Very deeply stained within, Sinking to rise no more;
But the Master of the sea, Heard my despairing cry,
From the waters lifted me—Now safe am I
Love lifted me..."*

Won't you allow Jesus to lift you from the deadly depths of sins?

HOUSE TO HOUSE

David A. Sargent, Mobile, AL
Lyrics written by James Rowe 1912

Burdens Give Us Wings

An old legend says that long ago God had a great many burdens that He wished to have carried from one place to another on earth, so He asked the animals to lend a hand. All of them began to make excuses for not helping: the elephant was too dignified, the lion too proud, and so on.

Finally the birds came and said, "If you will tie them into small bundles, we'll carry them for you. We are small but we would like to help."

So God fastened upon the back of each a small bundle, and they all set out walking across the plain to their destination. They sang as they went, and did not seem to feel the weight of their burdens at all. Every day the burdens seemed lighter and lighter, until the loads seemed to be lifting the birds, instead of the birds carrying the burdens.

When they arrived at their destination, they discovered when they removed their loads that there were wings in their place—wings which enabled them to fly to the sky and the treetops.

They had learned how to carry their burdens, and their loads had become wings to carry them nearer to God. The burdens we carry for others may become wings of the spirit, to lift us into happiness.

HOUSE TO HOUSE —Author Unknown

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for your visits, prayers and kind words while Granddad was in the hospital and nursing home as well as when he passed away. He loved each of you dearly.

Love and God Bless,
The Dannelley Family

A man took his three-year-old daughter to the home improvement store. His daughter quickly became tired of walking, so he let her ride on his shoulders. But soon after he began carrying her she began pulling on his hair. Although he asked her kindly to cease pulling his hair several times, she kept on. Getting fairly annoyed, he began to severely scold her. "But, Daddy," she replied, "I'm just trying to get my gum back."

There is an old fable about a dog that boasted of his ability as a runner. One day he chased a rabbit but failed to catch it. The other dogs ridiculed him. He retorted, "Remember, the rabbit was running for his life, but I was only running for the fun of it."

It's nice to be important...but more important to be nice!
